

Call of Special Election

Robert B. Evnen, Secretary of State for the State of Nebraska, is calling for a special election to be held Tuesday, February 11, 2025, to fill the vacancies for three members of the Village Board of Trustees, in Alvo, Nebraska. The election is being called pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 32-569 (Reissue 2016), after receiving notice from the Village of Alvo that vacancies in one half or more of the seats exist.

Registered voters of the Village of Alvo may file as candidates for member of the Alvo Village Board of Trustees. Candidate filings may be received starting December 20, 2024, until Friday, January 10, 2025, in the office of the Cass County Clerk during regular business hours. The term for the three village board seats will end in December 2026.

If no candidate filings are made to fill the vacancies on the Alvo Village Board of Trustees, the election will proceed with only write-in lines on the ballot, at which time the voters may write in the names of qualified candidates who have submitted write-in affidavits. The qualified persons receiving the greatest number of votes will be the elected members of the Alvo Village Board of Trustees.

Geri Draper, Cass County Clerk, acting on behalf of Robert B. Evnen, Secretary of State, will conduct this election.
